

ATTENTION ALL BCD EMPLOYEES!

At the end of the year, the employee with the best overall workspace that is clean and neat will receive a very special

However, the employee that improves the least and is disorganized will receive the wooden spoon!

A committee will review and decide each month the employee that is in the lead and the employee that is dead last! The results will be posted for everybody to see.

